

Services for Homeless Students

Counselors, teachers, administrators, school secretaries, the school nurse and other staff members work together to identify and assist homeless students and their families under the direction of the Valley View School District homeless liaison, Mr. Joseph Daley. A variety of supports, including Title 1 academic services, are available to assist with the needs of these students.